Blue Club (Tuesdays) Description

1600 SAT

Club Sponsor: Mr. Hsu

Location: CC

Club Description: What is the one key to doing well on the SAT? It's reading. Not only are you under a time crunch to read quickly, but you need to understand and comprehend what you are reading. The 1600 SAT Club will look at various techniques to increase your reading speed and comprehension. We will practice new techniques with actual essays from previous SAT's but the benefits will surely carry over into other classes!

American Football Club

Sponsor: Mr. Long

Club Leaders: Andre Joubert, Max Freeman

Location: Field

Club Description: Flag or touch football. We play football by the NFL rules.

Art Creator Workshop

Sponsor: Mr. Schirmer

Club Leaders: Catherine Wu, Aadya Chawla

Location: AR102

Club Description: This club's goal is to provide students with interesting art-related fun activities and games. We aim to create a free and friendly environment for students to work self-paced, with complete freedom to do as their heart desires and to express their creativity at the given moment. Activities like fabric painting, watercolor painting, glass painting, etc., can be arranged; if preferred, students will personally be provided with various challenges to explore the use of different materials, mediums, and art styles. There are no limits on art-even with the slightest interest; we encourage every one of you to explore your potential in art and to dive deep into your creative mindset!

Brain Break

Sponsor: Mr. Simmons

Club Leaders: Bella Dodson, Tim Chuang

Location: H107

Club Description: Brain Break Club's goal is to bring students together and have a mental break from school and everyday life. Here we will have calming activities, group discussions, and coffee and tea. We hope to bring light to mental health and help students achieve self-love and self-care.

Creative Writing Club

Sponsor: Mr. Jones
Club Leaders: Nathaniel Maffly
Location: H210
Club Description: This club is a place for people who share an interest in watching and discussing films to gather and share opinions. Watching movies in itself is relaxing/de-stressing for students, but the club also seeks to use this as an opportunity to encourage critical thinking and appreciation of the art of cinematography.

Rock Climbing Club

Sponsor: Mr. Nipper
Club Leaders: Samantha Shih
Location: Upper Gym
Club Description: In this club, students have the chance to push their strength, endurance, agility, and balance abilities to the limit by challenging themselves to climb any of the four walls.

Silent Reading Club

Sponsor: Mr. Lu
Location: H109
Club Description: We read in absolute silence with background sound from Movie Club next door

What would you suggest? Club

Sponsor: Mr. Lima/Mr. Pagel
Club Leaders: TBD
Location: Library
Club Description: This club is designed for people who care about books and their library. Students meet weekly to discuss what books they are reading and what new books are coming out. They will advise the library staff on a variety of issues such as what kinds of HS content to order, including both physical and digital items, as well as giving input on policies, hours of operation, etc. This year we hope to also have the club advise the library on furniture/shelving renovations for the high school section. Please note: In order to keep things focused, we are limiting this club to 10 people. If/when there is an opening, we will advertise that opening.
